

To: All IFLRY Member Organizations
Concerning: Notice of Bureau Vacancies / Bureau Elections

London, December 6, 2006

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the IFLRY Bureau I would like to inform you about the vacancy for one of the IFLRY Vice President positions. Together with this notice you are receiving the letter from Frosina KOSTOVSKA, IFLRY Vice President elected last year at the IFLRY General Assembly in Macedonia, in which she resigns from her position in the IFLRY Bureau.

Due to the new circumstance the IFLRY Rules of Procedure envisage elections at the upcoming General Assembly. Article XXXIII of the Rule of Procedure lays down the following procedure:

“Following a resignation or expulsion of a bureau member it is the right of the Executive Committee or General Assembly to immediately elect a replacement for the bureau member that resigned. This newly elected bureau member will have a period of mandate that expires in coherence with the rest of the bureau”

The election to fill the vacancy in the IFLRY Bureau will take place at the next General Assembly that will take place in Andorra, from the 15th to the 17th of December, 2006. Please consult the IFLRY website for the Rules of Procedure where the election procedure is described in details (http://iflry.org/files/folders/2006_andorra/entry376.aspx).

The procedure for elections will be as follows:

- Nominations for the vacant posts in the IFLRY Bureau should be submitted by the beginning of the Executive Committee meeting in Andorra i.e. by 14th of December , 2006 at 19:30 hours CET (Central European Time)
- Format of the nominations should be as for the regular elections. That includes a letter of nomination by IFLRY Full Member Organisation and, upon personal decision, any additional document no longer than 2 pages that the Candidate would like to address to the delegates/MOs
- Nominations received by 10th of December , 2006 will be posted in the IFLRY Webpage Document Center dedicated to the GA, aiming to provide possibility to the delegates to discuss the elections within their organization;

We would also like to remind that on the General Assemblies every full Member Organisation is entitled to vote, provided that the organisation has no outstanding debts towards IFLRY.

The IFLRY Bureau most sincerely thanks Frosina for her dedication to IFLRY and her efforts to ensure that IFLRY grows and strengthens. We wish Frosina both a lot of success in her political work and private life, hoping that in the future her energy and idealism will again contribute towards the development of liberalism on international level.

Yours sincerely,

Jacob Rasmussen
IFLRY President
